This program is to protect website access by using firewall. It has a simple interface to set access passwords for URLs to be protected. It can protect access to sites in your computer, or any other computers on the network. It is fully protected by password to prevent any unauthorized access. Password is only needed to protect your privacy from prying eyes. It can download the latest Anti-Virus updates automatically. You can select or exclude certain URL groups from access restriction.

Requirements: - Windows 2000, NT, XP, Vista, Windows Server 2003, 2008. - IE8, Firefox and Opera are not supported. I'm using IEProtect V3.6 under Windows 7 and IE 8.1 on other machines. No problem encountered. For details please see Details: - A new download button appeared. - Any updates to the

EXITECheck.exe file will be sent immediately when updates are available. The latest update to IEProtect.exe is available here: - Added the ability to set the EXITECheck.exe as the first priority executable to start when the computer boots. You can access this setting in the General tab of the installed IEProtect application. I just came across an issue in Firefox that prevents IEProtect from working in its latest version. - Firewall pop-up window issue for non-IE browsers. (See for details). Please confirm that you installed the latest update of IEProtect before posting feedback. If you have any problems, please contact me at giubinb@excite.com. Windows XP Users: You can download IEProtect to protect your access to websites without installing it. Just open IE to any website you want to protect and you can access it without any prompt. Virtue Security Gateway(VSW) is a highly robust and powerful open source firewall solution designed to protect your PC from external threats. Designed with intuitive and easy-to-use GUI interface, this software is the most secure and easiest-to-use firewall in the market. Features: *The most advanced firewall ever. *Offers an easy-to-use user interface (GUI). *Simple to use and configure. *Utilizes a multi
